You must pay the claimant the total of forthwith

Warning

If you ignore this order your goods may be removed and sold, or other enforcement proceedings may be taken against you. If this happens further costs will be added. If your circumstances change and you cannot pay, ask at the court office what you can do.

Notes for the defendant

If you did not reply to the claim form and believe judgment has been entered wrongly in default, you may apply to the court office giving your reasons why the judgment should be set aside. An application form is available for you to use and you will need to pay a fee. A hearing may be arranged and you will be told when and where it will take place. If you live in, or carry on business in, another court's area, the claim may be transferred to that court.

If judgment is for £5,000 or more, or is in respect of a debt which attracts contractual or statutory interest for late payment, the claimant may be entitled to further interest.

Details of this judgment will be entered in a public register, the Register of Judgments, Orders and Fines. They will then be passed to credit reference agencies, who will supply them to credit grantors and others seeking information on your financial standing. This will make it difficult for you to get credit. A list of credit reference agencies is available from Registry Trust Ltd, 173/175 Cleveland Street, London, W1T 6QR.

If you pay in full within one month, you can ask the court to cancel the entry on the Register. You will need to give the court proof of payment. If you also want a Certificate of Cancellation from the court, there is a fee for this. If you pay the debt in full after one month, you can ask the court to mark the entry as satisfied and, for a fee, obtain a Certificate of Satisfaction to prove that the debt has been paid.
